

W. P. WALTON.

For Congress.

HON. G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby County.

THE Kansas City convention adjourned since Friday afternoon after nominating Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president on the first ballot, with 5594 votes. The result was not reached until after an exciting session. New York sprung the name of Hill, and the enthusiasm that followed threatened to sweep the convention from its feet, but Hill in a speech positively declared he couldn't accept, and the stampede was checked. When the result was announced there was the usual rush to get in the band wagon, even New York changing to the Illinois man. The nomination was then made unanimous.

Those placed in nomination for vice president were Stevenson, Towne, Hill, Patrick and Lewis and many seconding speeches were made. Gov. McCreary on behalf of Kentucky seconding that of Stevenson.

We had thought that a New York or an Indiana man would have brought more strength to the ticket, and should have preferred to see the names of Bryan and Hill linked together for the leadership in the battle to be waged from now till November, but we yield always to the wisdom and decrees of the accredited authorities of the party acting in union and for the good of that party, and are satisfied that they did their work wisely and well. The ticket is a magnificent one. Bryan, the brave, the peerless, the incomparable leader of men and Stevenson calm, conservative, sound on all the great issues, and a Kentuckian, form an invincible ticket, which go by and the wisdom of the selection of the vice presidential candidate is better understood, and like the avalanche sweeping down the mountain side will carry everything before it, the more assured since the platform is all that every true American could desire. The splendid statement of principles deserves to be compared only with the Declaration of Independence, which it resembles more than the latter day party platforms, and is as far above the hypocritical pronouncements of the Philadelphia convention as the heaven is above the earth.

THE vice presidential nominee, Hon. A. E. Stevenson, was born in Christian county, Ky., attended school at Danville and removed with his father to Bloomington, Ill., when he was 16 years old. He served two terms in Congress from that district overcoming an overwhelming republican majority. He served in Cleveland's first cabinet as postmaster general and was nominated for vice president with Cleveland in 1892. At the conclusion of his term he returned to Bloomington and has since taken little part in politics. Of him Gov. Proctor Knott says he never knew a man of more absolute purity and who led a more blameless life. In a rather intimate acquaintance of 20 years, he has never known him to utter under any circumstances, a single syllable favoring of profanity, irreverence or impurity.

DEMOCRATS, whether they be for Black or other of the candidates for governor, should not fail to be on hand at the precinct conventions next Saturday afternoon, promptly at 2 o'clock. This county seems to be overwhelmingly for Black, who appears to us to be the man upon whom all factions of democrats can unite, but if a majority of our fellow-citizens think otherwise, we will heartily support any of the excellent men who desire the nomination. Let us get together, reason among ourselves, and do what seems to be the best for the party and for victory.

HON. DAVID B. HILL is showing himself a man and proving his assertion that he is a democrat. His speech seconding the nomination of Bryan was a feature of the convention and in a signed statement in the New York Herald he says that the selection of Stevenson for the vice presidency is the best that could have been made, adding: "The ticket and platform put the democracy in fair shape for the coming campaign. Nothing will be left undone on my part to secure its success."

THE stone that the builders rejected came next to being made the head of the corner. Adlai Stevenson was given the cold potato of an alternate's place, when he asked the Illinois convention for that of delegate, which he declined. Hill, of New York, was turned down by his delegation for a place on the platform committee and but for his persistent refusal to accept if nominated, he would have been chosen for vice president.

THE Richmond Agitator is the latest. It is edited by "Clarence E. Woods, a private citizen," and its object is to secure a reduction in the cost of light and water for the tax-payers of its city. It is chock full of facts and figures to show how the people are being robbed and of plain English against the robbers.

CHARLES A. TOWNE is acting very nicely for a disappointed man, showing that he is made out of the right stuff. Such a man will be honored sooner or later.

The National committee re-elected Senator Jones chairman by a unanimous vote.

EX-STATE INSPECTOR C. W. LESTER has brought suit against the INTERIOR JOURNAL, at Williamsburg for $5,000 for alleged libel in an editorial published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL concerning a telegram sent Noaks. It turns out that Noaks has an attorney at Bristol, Tenn., of the same name, and that explains Mr. Lester's want of knowledge of any telegram.

The above dispatch appeared in Sunday's Courier Journal and was a very great surprise to us, as we are entirely innocent of any intention to give other than what appeared from the Courier Journal and Louisville Times to be a well authenticated item. We do not know Mr. Lester personally, but had formed a good opinion of him during his service under Gov. Bradley and from the fact that his name had never been mixed up with those who are accused of complicity in the assassination of Gov. Goebel. We were further impressed with his honesty and manliness, when, as was stated at the time, he opposed a resolution of sympathy with Charles Finley, indicted for being accessory to the assassination when it was presented in the Whitley county convention. The alleged fact that he sent the dispatch to Noaks, after his apparently honorable course during the troublous times, surprised us not a little. We saw no contradiction of it, however, till after our paper was published, when we immediately put in type for this issue that Mr. Lester Jeni had sent the dispatch. We think the gentleman has acted with undue haste in the matter, as a note to us would have brought a correction and a thorough denial of any malicious intent in the premises. Good lawyers say the item is not libellous and that the charge can not be maintained on it, but we waive that and make the amende honorable any way, which should fully satisfy Mr. Lester. If a correction and a denial of wrong intent on our part are what he seeks.

THE platform being rather long and more than the average reader will devour at one sitting we condense it for the hasty as well as the lazy.

It holds that the constitution must follow the flag, no nation being able to long endure half republic and half empire, imperialism abroad leading to despotism at home.

The Porto Rican tariff law is denounced as a flagrant violation of the nation's good faith and dishonors Americans by repudiating solemn pledges.

Prompt and honest fulfillment of pledges to Cuba is demanded.

The Philippine policy of the administration is condemned and demands for Filipinos, first, a stable form of government, second, independence and third protection for outside interference.

Expansion in desirable territory is approved, not through force, but "through the persuasive power of a high and honorable example. The importance of other questions now pending before the American people is in no wise diminished, and the democratic party takes no backward step from its position on them, but the burning issue of imperialism growing out of the Spanish war involves the very existence of the republic and the destruction of our free institutions. We regard it as the paramount issue of the campaign."

The Monroe doctrine is reaffirmed and the deception and insincerity of the Philadelphia platform demonstrated.

Militarism, which means conquest abroad and intimidation and oppression at home, is opposed and denounced as unamerican, undemocratic and unrepudiated as well as subversive of the ancient and fixed principles of a free people.

Trusts are indefensible and an unceasing warfare against monopoly is pledged and a demand that all products of trusts be put on the free list to prevent monopoly under the plea of protection.

The Dingley law is a breeder of trusts and is severely condemned.

Favors enlargement of scope of interstate commerce law.

Reaffirms the Chicago platform, and demands restoration of free and unlimited coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1, without the aid or consent of any other nation.

Favors election of U. S. Senators by popular vote.

Opposes government by injunction, denounces the black list and favors arbitration.

Recommends the creation of a Department of Labor, with a secretary as one of the cabinet.

Favors liberal pensions for soldiers of all our wars.

Favors immediate construction, ownership and control of the Nicaragua canal by the United States.

The Hay-Pauncefote treaty is condemned.

Promises the people of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma immediate Statehood and home rule; favors an intelligent system of improving the arid lands of the West.

The continuance and enforcement of the Chinese expulsion law is favored.

No alliance with other nations should be permitted.

Sympathy with the Boers in their fight for liberty and home is expressed and republican extravagance and corruption denounced.

The reduction and speedy repeal of war taxes is favored, as well as a strict economy in governmental expenditures.

Believing that our cherished institutions are in peril, the support of the liberty-loving American people, regardless of past political affiliations, is earnestly asked.

The platform is large enough, broad enough and comprehensive enough for all democrats to stand upon and we predict that there will be a rush from the ranks of those who have been sulking in their tents to get upon it.

By a slip of memory we made Mrs. J. M. Young postmaster at London, instead of her husband. Knowing that she is a daughter of Congressman Berea the slip was very natural, as that is a republican stronghold and Mr. Young is a democrat. For this Editor Dyer goes into convulsions and speaks of us as the crippled editor. As we have never asked consideration from the fact that we suffer from a broken leg, we can not see what such a pusillanimous reference to an infirmity has to do with the point at issue, except that the maker of it is devoid of feeling and is a natural born ignoramus, who would needlessly wound when no offense was intended.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Hon. Ed. Parker, of London, is a candidate for representative.

Mayor James K. McGuire, of Syracuse, has been selected to direct the democratic gubernatorial campaign in New York this fall.

This settles it. P. Watt Hardin says he most heartily approves the nomination of Bryan and Stevenson and every syllable of the platform.

The Richmond Register likes the interrogatories propounded by this paper to Mr. Yerkes so well that it keeps them standing in its columns.

Bryan and Stevenson will speak at the Lincoln ratification meeting today. It is the intention to make the affair the formal opening of the campaign.

The executive committee of the silver republican party has issued an address endorsing Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president. Mr. Towne advised this course.

Cassius M. Clay, Jr., keeps himself before the public by doing his regular bolting act. He can't support Bryan Stevenson and urges sound money democrats to put up a ticket.

Gov. Beckham has ordered special elections in the districts in which vacancies in the general assembly have been caused by death, to be held Aug. 6 and this is taken to mean that he will call a special session of the Legislature this fall.

The republican chairman of the London judicial district has called county conventions for July 14, to select and instruct delegates to the judicial convention to be held at Manchester, Clay county, on July 21, to nominate a candidate for circuit judge.

Speaker South Trimble got 42 instructed votes in Saturday's primaries, seven short of a nomination. Allen got 20, Moody, Henry and Oldham. Owen seems contesting delegations. Trimble seems pretty sure of being the nominee as he has second instructions in Oldham.

Mr. Emmett Puryear, of Danville, told the Cincinnati Enquirer that "Hon. James D. Black and Gov. Beckham both have supporters in Boyle, but the county will instruct for Hon. Jas. B. McCreary, whom we regard as a man certain to lead the democratic party to victory over our fellow-townsmen, Hon. John W. Yerkes, who will be the republican color-bearer. Attorney General R. J. Breckinridge, of our city, is working for Black."

Editor Keller copies our article on amending the election law and says: "The above is from Walton's INTERIOR JOURNAL, and there is not a more earnest and devoted organ of democracy in the State, and its advice should not be despised or rejected, for as sure as the democrats of Kentucky go into the fight this fall with the Goebel law it now stands defeat will be their portion."

"Nay, nay, dear Keller, we will win anyway, but more largely with the law amended and shorn of its partisan features."

We heartily agree with Editor Walton when he says that with Gov. McCreary unannounced, Black will win on the first ballot in the Lexington convention. If the democrats act wisely they will nominate Black, endorse Bryan, Kansas City platform, condemn government by assassination, request Gov. Beckham to call an extra session of the Legislature to amend, not repeal, the Goebel Election law and return home with a determination to elect the candidate named.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

The democratic party will take great satisfaction in celebrating, every day and hour of the canvass, the 100th anniversary of the famous and far-reaching campaign made by Thomas Jefferson in 1800. That was the campaign that clinched a republican form of government for the United States, and this year it will be the work of the followers of Jefferson to stem the awful tide of imperialism that has come out of the war with Spain, under a weak, vacillating and venal administration.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The National convention of the silver republicans nominated Bryan for president, but they didn't take so well to Stevenson. After much discussion the matter was left to the committee with power to act and it decided to endorse Stevenson. Mr. Bryan expressed his pleasure at the selection of Mr. Stevenson. He thought Towne would have strengthened the ticket in States where there is a fusion between the democrats, populists and silver republicans, but said the support given Stevenson showed that the convention thought him the more available man.

The State board of equalization has finished work and filed the report with Auditor Coulter, showing that the total value of property assessed in the State is $574,867,964, which will produce $2,730,622 in taxes at 47 cents on $100, which is the rate this year, instead of 52 cents, which has been collected for the past three years. The total assessed value of property this year is slightly larger than last year, but the tax income will be $226,000 less because of the 5 per cent. reduction in the tax rate.

The revenue collections in this district last month were $2,791,977.41.

TRIAL OF ASSASSIN SUSPECTS ON.

GEORGETOWN, July 9.—The case of Caleb Powers, charged with being accessory before the fact of the murder of Gov. Goebel, was called today, but at the request of counsel for the defense, continued till tomorrow morning at 9 and subpoenas issued for absent witnesses. Spectators were searched for arms on entering the court room.

AN EPIDEMIC OF DIARRHOEA.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Coconut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggist.

The High Bridge camp meeting will begin Sunday, July 15th. Revs. Geo. R. Stuart and W. T. Bolling will be present and preach.

At Quitman, Miss., Randolph Evans had to be shot and disabled before the sheriff could hang him, he resisted so savagely.

James White, a farmer living near Science Hill, died suddenly last week.

Desirable Farm At Private Sale.

Desiring to change climate on account of my health, I will sell at private sale my farm of 350 acres in West Lincoln County, Kentucky 2 1/2 miles East of Hustonsville, and 1 1/2 miles West of McKinney on C. & S. R.

This farm and improvements are among the best in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky. The dwelling is a modern brick and frame, metal roof, containing 9 rooms with halls, porch and veranda. Outbuildings include two splendid and commodious barns with 24 box stalls and shed room for 100 cattle or 200 sheep, other buildings include ice-house, buggy houses, meat house, coal house, poultry house, flower pit and good tenant house of five rooms. All buildings are in first-class repair and comparatively new. Never failing orchard of best variety of fruit. The larger portion of this farm is first-class tobacco and hemp land. Abundance of never failing water, four rock walled ponds, in addition to branch through one side of the place. 200 acres of farm in blue grass or meadow, with 50 acres in wheat and corn; fencing in excellent condition and abundance in quantity.

This farm is in good shape for division, if so desired, as it lays almost in a square, bounded on North and East sides by Hustonsville and McKinney Turnpike. This home and farm has to be seen to be appreciated. Any one wishing to secure a very desirable place will rarely meet with an opportunity to find this quality on the market. Terms liberal. Any person desiring to inspect the premises are invited to call on or address me at Hustonsville, Ky.
